
Birds Gully and Bunnerong Creek Floodplain Management Committee

Randwick Council is seeking community representation for the Birds Gully and Bunnerong Creek Floodplain Management Committee.

Property owners / residents are invited to nominate to be one of three community representatives on the committee.

Nominations will need to demonstrate their suitability for this role and how they meet the following criteria:

- Commitment to the interest of the community in flooding issues.
- Interest in conserving, maintaining or protecting the natural environment.
- Ability to be part of the team and meet the common objective of the committee.
- Appreciation of Council's role and capabilities.
- Willing to participate in constructive discussion regarding issues relating to flooding and disaster management.
- Ability to represent community views in the floodplain management process.

Applications close 29 October 2023, with the intention of holding the first meeting of the committee on Wednesday 8 November 2023.
