Dear resident

Our plan for the arts, transport and open spaces

I often reflect on how lucky we are to live in one of the best cities in the world – Randwick City.

Part of what makes living here so special is the access we have to open spaces, cultural facilities and transport options to help us easily go about our daily lives and connect with our community.

Randwick City Council wants to make sure we preserve and continue what is currently working well and take advantage of new opportunities.

To do this, we have developed three important strategies and these are currently on public exhibition for community comment.

- Open Space and Recreation Strategy
- Integrated Transport Strategy
- Arts and Culture Strategy

Each strategy is the result of community consultation conducted throughout 2019 and 2020 which was used as part of detailed studies into each area.

The findings of these studies have been converted into easy-to-read strategies with specific approaches that Council proposes to undertake over the next 10 years to enrich community well-being.

Included with this letter is a snapshot of just some of what is included in each strategy.

I encourage you to review the documents and visit our Your Say Randwick website where you can read the strategies and associated studies and attend a webinar to find out more.

Your feedback is important to help ensure we get the strategies right and maintain Randwick City's reputation as one of Australia's most liveable areas.

The strategies are on public exhibition from 1-28 June 2021.

Yours faithfully

Councillor Danny Said
Mayor of Randwick
